Band Info:

Malasañers is an originally Madrid group now settled in Germany. It fuses Speedfolk with Punkrock Music, and in the process giving it a new twist. This band is a collection of international working class musicians with the requisite rebel soul needed to bring this unique style of music to life.

Malasañers take his name from Manuela Malasaña, a fifteen years old young girl who was killed by french troops in Madrid during the Independence War.

Its new single, "Sell" (Wolverine Records), will be released next 17.11. in digital download format and with a video.

Malasañers has already played support notable bands in the scene, The Real McKenzies and The Mahones, and has played regularly in esteemed venues in Germany, Czech Republic, Austria, Spain, Portugal and Switzerland, and also in well known festivals like Sziget Festival in Budapest.

Music and melodies have been composed by the band but, as said before, with a new modern twist which can cross through the borders of Folkpunk and Folkrock with newness and energy.
